

QHSE Manager

Duties and Responsibilities:

As a QHSE Manager it will be your job to: identify, create, coordinate, manage and, in conjunction with management; to implement QHSE programs that comply with regulatory company guidelines and industry policies. We are looking for an experienced QHSE professional to join our team in Conroe TX and when you apply to this post with your resume it will go to the hiring manager.

- This job entails implementing systems, policies, and procedures in order to meet safety and occupational health standards.
- Lead Quality, Health and Safety reviews, regular safety inspections and incident investigations. Facilitate risk assessment to identify critical safety and occupational health hazards.
- Identify OHS regulatory responsibilities for the company in compliance with applicable laws.
- Provide employee training including but not limited to: root cause analysis, complaint management, injury and illness prevention, CPR & First Aid, hazardous materials, hazardous waste, respiratory protection, hearing protection, radiation safety, laser safety, chemical safety, etc.
- Document all QHS activities for audit purposes.
- Maintain records for all safety compliance programs.
- Lead management in the investigation of client complaints, non-conformities, injuries and accidents, report completion, initiation of corrective actions, and ensure completion.
- Develop and implement QHSE audit functions to ensure that standards are maintained.
- Monitor and report non-conformances; recommend corrective action for non-conformances.
- Communicate QHSE audit/inspection results to management and ensure that follow-up inspections are performed to ensure compliance with standard operating procedures and regulations.
- Ensure all data, statistics and information required by management, government bodies and agencies is accurately compiled and produced in a timely manner to meet regulatory reporting requirements. Keep current on regulations, accepted standards and reporting requirements and evaluate their effect on operations.

Qualifications

- Min. 2 Years HSE Experience.
- Must be reliable and looking for long-term employment
- Valid driver's license and reliable personal vehicle
- Computer knowledge (Windows, Microsoft Office, etc.)
- Must be able to pass drug, alcohol and background screening

Benefits

- Medical
- Dental
- Vision
- 401K
- Life Insurance

An Equal Opportunity Employer

Please send resumes to careers@turbodrillind.com